Sub: Incorporation of Prof. Jagadis Chandra Misra to the Global Top 2%
Scientists' List by Stanford University

We are very happy to announce that Prof. Jagadis Chandra Misra, an illustrious alumnus of Vidyamandira (1959-64) has been incorporated recently to the Global Top 2% Scientists' List by the Stanford University. Jagadisbabu qualified intermediate exam in 1961; he got the honours graduate degree in Mathematics from Calcutta University in 1964 and completed masters in Applied Mathematics from the same university in 1966. He also received the Ph. D from Jadavpur University in 1971, and, was finally awarded with Doctor of Science (D.Sc.) from the University of Calcutta in 1984 for his outstanding contribution to teaching & research.

Professor Misra is an acclaimed scientist & academician with fascinating research interests in structural engineering and bio-engineering. Interestingly, his research addressed many applied areas of industries. In fact, some of his observations in physiological fluid dynamics are globally accepted as important landmarks in biomedical engineering research. His extensive work in the field of medicine and physiology is also praiseworthy.

He has been a Fellow of the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation and a guest scientist in several universities of Germany, USA, Canada, Hong Kong, England and Malaysia. He delivered more than 150 invited lectures in distinguished institutions/universities in India and abroad, as well as in national/international conferences. He has 14 advanced level books and about 217 research publications in reputed national/international journals on his credit. Prof. Misra guided 33 Ph. D students as an investigator and handled 5 sponsored research projects as a principal investigator. He is a former professor and Head of the Department of Mathematics and Head (actg.) of the School of Medical Science and Technology, IIT Kharagpur. Prof. Misra is also an Adjunct Professor, IEST, Shibpur.

Vidyamandira Parivar feels proud for such a global recognition of Prof. Jagadis Chandra Misra and wholeheartedly celebrates this with all teachers, students & non-teaching staffs.
